II. DEFENDANTS

- 2.1 Defendant, Knowledge 4 Kids d/b/a Kures 4 Kids ("K4K") is a Washington non-profit corporation. K4K is located in Snohomish, Washington, and conducts business in Snohomish and other counties. K4K is also known as "Kures for Kids" and "Cures for Kids" and was formerly known as "Knowledge for Kids[.]"
- 2.2 K4K solicits and collects contributions for charitable or purportedly charitable purposes from the general public in the state of Washington including, but not limited to, King and Snohomish Counties.
- 2.3 Defendant Michael W. Gannon is the President and Director of K4K, and as such, he has had and continues to have control over its policies, activities, and practices, including those alleged in this Complaint. Michael W. Gannon is married to Amy D. Gannon and together they constitute a marital community ("the Gannons"). All actions taken by Michael W. Gannon as alleged in this Complaint are for the benefit of his marital community. Michael W. Gannon resides in Snohomish, Washington and transacts or has transacted business in the state of Washington.
- 2.4 Defendant Amy D. Gannon is the Secretary of K4K, and as such, she has had and continues to have control over its policies, activities, and practices, including those alleged in this Complaint. Amy D. Gannon is married to Michael W. Gannon and together they constitute a marital community. All actions taken by Amy D. Gannon as alleged in this Complaint are for the benefit of her marital community. Amy D. Gannon resides in Snohomish, Washington and transacts or has transacted business in the state of Washington. K4K, Michael Gannon, and Amy Gannon are sometimes referred to below collectively as "Defendants."

2.5 Defendants have acted and continue to act in concert and cooperatively in carrying out the conduct alleged in this Complaint and each is responsible for the unlawful conduct alleged herein.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 3.1 The State files this complaint and institutes these proceedings under the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and the Charitable Solicitations Act, RCW 19.09.
- 3.2 The Defendants have engaged in the conduct set forth in this complaint in King County and elsewhere in the state of Washington.
 - 3.3 Venue is proper in King County pursuant to RCW 4.12.020 and 4.12.025.

IV. NATURE OF TRADE OR COMMERCE

4.1 Defendants are now, and have been at all times relevant to this lawsuit, engaged in trade or commerce, within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020, by directly and indirectly soliciting and collecting charitable contributions from the general public in the state of Washington.

V. FACTS

5.1 Defendant Michael Gannon has established various charitable organizations and commercial fundraising organizations for the purpose of soliciting and collecting charitable contributions from the general public to support, or purportedly to support, causes relating to developmental disabilities in children, including but not limited to providing financial and logistical support to help low-income families obtain mobility equipment, providing financial support to other nonprofit organizations that take developmentally disabled children on excursions in the community, and supporting children's hospitals, camps, clubs, after school programs, literacy programs, and financial assistance programs.

5.2 Defendant K4K is one of the organizations established by Defendant Michael Gannon. K4K solicits and collects charitable donations from the general public across Washington, including but not limited to Snohomish and King Counties. Michael Gannon incorporated K4K in March 2012. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a certified copy of K4K's Articles of Incorporation, on file with the Secretary of State.

The Gannons' Activities Before K4K

- 5.3 Michael Gannon has for many years been involved in several businesses with Joseph Searles. Several of these business have been investigated by the State of Washington, leading to regulatory actions such as the suspending of licenses. Michael Gannon was investigated by the Washington Department of Financial Institutions ("DFI"), together with Joseph Searles, for his role in 1st Columbia Mortgage Corporation.
- 5.4 In December 2009, WDFI charged Mssrs. Gannon and Searles with failing to provide required borrower disclosures, and for taking, charging and receiving unreasonable fees in connection with mortgage loans. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a copy of DFI's Statement of Charges and Notice of Intention to Enter an Order to Revoke or Suspend License, Prohibit From Industry, Impose Fine, Order Restitution, and Collect Investigation Fee. For example, DFI alleged that in December 2006, a borrower applied for a mortgage loan from Maag Inc., a company owned by Michael Gannon's spouse. Maag Inc. denied the application but referred the borrower to another company, of which Michael Gannon was Vice President, and Joseph Searles was President. That company provided an unreasonable referral fee of $15,000.00 to Maag Inc. without ever disclosing to the borrower the affiliation between the businesses. See Exhibit 2, p. 6, ¶1.13.
- 5.5 On August 30, 2011, Michael Gannon and Joseph Searles entered into a Consent Decree with DFI resolving the charges. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a copy of the DFI Consent Decree. The Consent Decree suspended Michael Gannon's license to engage in the business of a loan originator for three years, but stayed the suspension for two years subject to compliance examinations. See id. at pp. 2, \P D.

- 5.6 Following WDFI's investigation of 1st Columbia Mortgage Corporation, Michael Gannon continued his business relationship with Joseph Searles turning to charitable fundraising. In March 2012, Mr. Gannon was working as a manager of Autism Awareness United ("AAU"), a Washington non-profit corporation. AAU was also known as "Autism Awareness Washington" and was formerly known as "Autism Awareness Northwest." Michael Gannon managed AAU's activities in Snohomish County.
- 5.7 AAU's stated charitable purpose was to spread awareness about autism and to raise funds to assist low-income families in gaining access to therapies and resources, and it solicited charitable donations from the general public across Washington. AAU retained persons to solicit charitable donations as independent contractors and compensated these solicitors, but did not enter into written contracts with them. AAU's solicitors were instructed to, and did, solicit donations at tables set up outside retail establishments such as liquor and grocery stores. Donors made cash donations to AAU into a Plexiglas box or purchased small trinkets or raffle tickets. AAU's solicitors were instructed to, and did, induce people to make donations by telling them that their donations would help families with autistic children and that 100 percent of donations go to help those families, when these statements were inaccurate and misleading.
- 5.8 The Attorney General's Office investigated AAU, and alleged that AAU and Joseph and Rena Searles were in substantial violation of the Charitable Solicitations Act, RCW 19.09, and had committed various unfair and deceptive trade acts or practices. On or about February 13, 2013, AAU and the Searles entered into a consent decree with the Attorney General's office. This consent decree required the dissolution of AAU and prevented the Searles from soliciting charitable donations in Washington, forming a charitable organization or commercial fundraising corporation, or serving as a director or officer of a charitable organization or commercial fundraising corporation. Attached hereto as Exhibit 4 is a copy of the Searles' Consent Decree.

5.9 AAU ceased charitable solicitation activities in approximately September or October 2012. The Gannons began soliciting charitable contributions for K4K on October 25, 2012.

K4K's Registration

- 5.10 K4K registered as a non-profit corporation and charitable organization with the Washington Secretary of State ("SOS"). On its registration form, K4K indicates that it "will apply" to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") for federal 501(c)(3) tax status, but upon information and belief K4K has not yet submitted its application. Attached as Exhibits 5 and 6 are K4K's Charitable Organization Registration and Charitable Organization Amendment forms.
- 5.11 On the second charity registration form K4K submitted to SOS, the Gannons stated that K4K's mission/purpose was "to help improve the quality of life for families with disabled and special needs children through mobility device assistance and also life enriching [sic] social and recreational activities with other local charities we support." Exhibit 6, p. 2.
- 5.12 K4K's initial registration form stated that its first accounting year would end on October 31, 2013. See Exhibit 5, p. 3. Thus, K4K's initial accounting year began on October 31, 2012. K4K's financial records indicate that it began soliciting and receiving contributions on October 25, 2012. However, its initial registration form stated that it did not solicit or receive contributions in Washington during the accounting year that would have ended on October 31, 2012. See Exhibit 5, p. 4. K4K's registration form therefore failed to make the requisite disclosures to SOS regarding amount collected, related expenses, and amount expended for charitable purposes. See RCW 19.09.075. K4K's amended form, filed in May 2013, made no attempt to correct this failure. See Exhibit 6.

K4K's Deceptive In-Person Solicitations Using Paid Solicitors

- 5.13 K4K solicits donations at tables set up outside retail establishments such as grocery stores and mass merchandisers. Donors make cash or check donations into a Plexiglas box and are sometimes permitted to take small trinkets, which K4K has purchased at The Dollar Store. Attached hereto as Exhibit 7 is a picture of a K4K solicitation table, taken by an investigator with the Attorney General's Office.
- 5.14 Defendants actively sought to hire additional solicitors through WorkSource, where they posted a job listing for "fundraising representatives" (i.e. solicitors) who would be paid a rate of $10-15 per hour. Attached hereto as Exhibit 8 is a copy of a WorkSource job listing posted by K4K. K4K compensates its paid solicitors at a rate of $10 per hour.
- 5.15 K4K did not enter into written contracts with its paid solicitors. K4K did not instruct solicitors to register or make any filings or register with SOS. K4K did not file any registration(s) with SOS regarding their engagement of solicitors, nor did they register K4K as a commercial fundraiser. Moreover, K4K's paid solicitors repeatedly represented to members of the public, including undercover investigators with the Attorney General's Office, that they were volunteers, in the course of soliciting charitable contributions. Several examples are set forth below.
- 5.16 On June 16, 2013 at the Wal-Mart store located in Mt. Vernon, Washington, one of the independent contractors engaged by K4K, told a consumer that he was "volunteering" for K4K, when in fact K4K's financial records establish that he was paid $50 for his services that day. This representation was made in the course of soliciting a charitable contribution from the consumer and her elderly mother.

5.17 On July 26, 2013 at the QFC grocery store located at Gilman Blvd in Issaquah, Washington, Michael Gannon told an undercover investigator from the AGO that K4K used volunteers to help raise money for children with disabilities. During this conversation, he explicitly referred to K4K's solicitor as a volunteer, when in fact the solicitor was an independent contractor paid a rate of $10/hour. This representation was made in the course of soliciting a charitable contribution. When the investigator approached the solicitor, Dan, and asked if he was a volunteer, he said "Yes I am; a veteran volunteer." The investigator then rephrased the question and directly asked if the contractor was paid, to which he again repeated that he was not paid, but rather was a volunteer.

5.18 At approximately 2:15 on August 26, 2013, an undercover investigator from the AGO observed a K4K solicitor at the Albertson's store at 3925 236th Ave. NE, Redmond, Washington. The K4K solicitor identified himself as Dan and stated that he was a volunteer, and specifically denied being paid when asked. Dan stated that K4K raises money for the Boys and Girls Club and Friendship Adventures. Dan further stated that K4K was sending some children to compete in the Special Olympics, but when asked did not identify the event(s) in which the children would compete.

K4K Gives Deceptive Brochures to Potential Donors

- 5.19 K4K's paid solicitors regularly give or refer potential donors to brochures displayed at K4K's solicitation tables. Michael and Amy Gannon collaborated on drafting K4K's brochures.
- 5.20 In its brochures, K4K states that it "aid [sic] children with physical challenges whose families cannot afford, nor obtain insurance for necessary mobility equipment such as wheelchairs, walkers, strollers, and other such mobility devices[,]" "help [sic] support other non-profit organizations in the community to take children out for special excursions…" and "supports other local initiatives to benefit the children of the community, such as children's hospitals, camps, Boys and Girls Clubs, after school programs, literacy programs and financial assistance." Attached hereto as Exhibit 9 are copies of several K4K brochures.

- 5.21 Through at least May of 2013, K4K's brochure indicated that it raised funds on behalf of the following organizations: Feat of Washington, Washington Autism Alliance, The Arc of Island and Skagit, 2014 Special Olympics, Boys and Girls Club of Washington State, Washington Access Fund, Parent to Parent Support Programs, Open Door Autism Center, Easter Seals Washington State, and YMCA. See Exhibit 9. However, upon information and belief none of these organizations had authorized the Gannons to use their names to solicit funds.
- 5.22 After some of these organizations, including Washington Autism Alliance and Autism Society of Washington, complained to the Defendants about the unauthorized use of their organizations' names, the Gannons removed all but three of them (Feat Washington, 2014 Special Olympics, and Boys and Girls Club of Washington State) from the K4K brochure.
- 5.23 Washington Autism Alliance has stated that it will not accept donations from the Gannons, K4K, or any other organizations with which the Gannons are affiliated because it does not want its name associated with Defendants.
- 5.24 When the executive director of Feat Washington contacted Amy Gannon on May 1, 2013 regarding the unauthorized use of its name, Amy Gannon told her that K4K had not yet donated any funds because it had just started soliciting. Feat Washington then gave Defendants two weeks to mail a check or remove its name from the K4K brochure. The Gannons did not send a check to Feat within two weeks but continued to list Feat on K4K brochures as an organization K4K supports.
- 5.25 Between January and April 2013, Defendants did not provide any funds to a single organization listed on its brochure. On May 17, Defendants wrote two $200 checks to two of the organizations, Feat and Washington Autism Alliance, only after receiving notice that the Attorney General's Office was investigating K4K. At that time, K4K's $400 in checks represented approximately 1.7% of its total revenue from charitable donations.

- 5.26 At some point between May and July of 2013, Defendants added three additional entities to the list of "organizations we support" on its brochures: Friendship Adventures, Donor Closet, and Q-Lifts. See Exhibit 9.
- 5.27 The second entity, Donor Closet, received a call from Amy Gannon on April 26, 2013. The Executive Director of Donor Closet gave Amy Gannon permission to put a link on its website, but did not authorize Defendants to use its name or website on any solicitation or marketing materials. Nor did Donor Closet give Defendants permission to solicit donations on its behalf.
- 5.28 Donor Closet did not hear from Defendants again until July 2013, when Michael Gannon and his son showed up asking if they could donate two large, old wheelchairs for children. Donor Closet informed Michael Gannon that the wheelchairs he had were for adults, not children, and that they could not retrofit them to be used by children. Michael Gannon donated the wheelchairs anyway, but they were in such poor condition that they could only be used for scrap.
- 5.29 The third entity, Q-Lifts, is a for-profit company incorporated in Virginia, whose website is http://qlifts.com/. Amy Gannon contacted Q-Lifts in October of 2012 to ask if it was "willing to work with them if they had someone in need of medical equipment." One of the co-owners told her that they would help anyone that Defendants referred to Q-Lifts. Amy Gannon also asked if K4K could use the Q-Lifts name to promote Q-Lifts—not K4K—and was given permission to do so.
- 5.30 In either June or July of 2013, Amy Gannon contacted Q-Lifts again to ask if K4K could provide the Q-Lifts name to its clients and was given permission to do so. Upon information and belief, to date Q-Lifts has not done business with anyone who was referred by or received assistance from Defendants.

- 5.31 Defendants claimed on K4K brochures that they used "dedicated volunteers" to help support the K4K mission, when in fact it uses paid solicitors.
- 5.32 None of the solicitation materials at the K4K tables indicated that K4K was a commercial fundraiser registered with SOS. See Exhibit 9.
- 5.33 None of the solicitation materials at the K4K tables indicated that K4K contracted with paid solicitors, who were commercial fundraisers, or that those commercial fundraisers were registered with SOS. See Exhibit 9.

K4K's Poor Corporate Governance and Charitable Spending Are Concealed from Potential Donors

- 5.34 According to K4K's Articles of Incorporation, Michael Gannon is the sole incorporator and initial director of K4K. See Exhibit 1.
- 5.35 According to K4K's filings with the SOS, Michael Gannon is the sole director of K4K, and K4K's President. According to information available on the Secretary of State's website, the only other officer of K4K is its Secretary, Amy Gannon, who is Michael Gannon's wife. Attached hereto as Exhibit 10 is a copy of the Registration Detail information page for Knowledge 4 Kids, which does business as Kures 4 Kids, on the Washington Secretary of State's website. See also Exhibit 1, p. 8.
- 5.36 Prior to May 8, 2013, K4K paid Michael Gannon a salary of $500 per week. Upon information and belief, there was no formal authorization from K4K's board of directors for K4K to compensate Michael Gannon at that, or any other rate, prior to May 8, 2013.
- 5.37 In January 2013, K4K took in $2,927.19 in total donations. In February 2013, K4K took in $2,888.63 in total donations. In March 2013, K4K took in $3,931.57 in total donations. In April 2013, K4K took in $8,515.33 in total donations.

- 5.38 Following the increased donation income of April 2013, Defendants held a board meeting to adopt the bylaws for K4K, and to address other matters. At that time, K4K had been incorporated for more than a year, and had been soliciting charitable donations for more than 5 months. K4K's board meeting took place on May 8, 2013. Attached as Exhibit 11 is a copy of the Minutes of the Special Meeting President/Director of Knowledge 4 Kids dba Kures 4 Kids, dated May 8, 2013.
- 5.39 Michael Gannon was and is the only board member of K4K. As such he was the only person entitled to vote, and the only person who in fact voted at the May 8, 2013 board meeting. At that meeting, Michael Gannon, as sole director of K4K, voted to increase his compensation as Director of K4K from $500 per week to $800 per week. See Exhibit 11. Because Michael Gannon was the sole director, he had sole discretion regarding setting his own compensation. The Board meeting minutes were recorded by his wife, Amy Gannon.
- 5.40 As of the date Michael Gannon voted himself a pay raise from $500 to $800 per week, K4K had not distributed any of the funds it had received as charitable donations from the public to disabled children or their families, or to any of the organizations identified on K4K's materials soliciting charitable contributions from the public. In addition, at that time K4K was not yet breaking even over the course of its operational life.
- 5.41 K4K's corporate governance is in significant conflict with generally accepted standards for accountability in charitable organizations. For example, the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance promulgates "Standards for Charity Accountability," which are available online at http://www.bbb.org/us/standards-for-charity-accountability. A copy of the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance's "Standards for Charity Accountability" is attached hereto as Exhibit 12. The BBB recommends "[a] board of directors with a minimum of five voting members." In contrast, K4K's Bylaws provide that "[t]he organization shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of 1 director(s)." Attached hereto is a copy of the Bylaws of Knowledge 4 Kids dba Kures 4 Kids, dated May 8, 2013. That director is Michael Gannon. See Exhibit 13.

- 5.42 The BBB recommends "[n]ot more than one or 10% (whichever is greater) directly or indirectly compensated person(s) serving as voting member(s) of the board." See Exhibit 12. In contrast, 100% of K4K's board, consisting of Michael Gannon, was and is compensated. See Exhibit 11.
- 5.43 The BBB recommends "[n]o transactions in which any board or staff members have material conflicting interests with the charity resulting from any relationship or business affiliation." Exhibit 12. In contrast, K4K's Bylaws adopted by the single vote of Michael Gannon on May 8, 2013 provide that "[i]n the determination of a quorum of the directors, or in voting, the disclosed adverse interest of a director shall not disqualify the director or invalidate his or her vote." Exhibit 13. Michael Gannon took advantage of this provision by voting himself a significant pay raise on May 8, 2013 during the same meeting in which he adopted bylaws allowing him to disregard his own conflict of interest. See Exhibit 11.
- K4K's financial operations are also in significant conflict with generally accepted standards for accountability in charitable organizations. For example, the BBB recommends that a charity "[s]pend at least 65% of its total expenses on program activities." Exhibit 12. Similarly, the American Institute of Philanthropy states that "[a] 60% program percentage typically indicates a 'satisfactory' or 'C range' rating. Most highly efficient charities able 75% programs." See spend or more are to http://www.charitywatch.org/criteria.html. A copy of the American Institute of Philanthropy's criteria is attached hereto as Exhibit 14. In contrast, K4K has spent the majority of its total expenses on compensation for its Director, Michael Gannon, and on fundraising (including payments to independent contractors for fundraising activities). At no time has K4K spent at least 65% of its total revenue on program activities.

5.45 K4K does not disclose the manner in which it actually uses funds to potential donors. Instead, K4K's in-person, on-line, and brochures misleadingly and deceptively suggest that the majority of donation revenue is spent directly benefitting children with developmental disorders and the charities that K4K says it "supports."

K4K Has Failed to Produce Documents to the Attorney General's Office

5.46 On November 21, 2013, the Attorney General's Office sent a letter to James J. Jameson, registered agent for K4K, demanding certain financial documents and records pursuant to RCW 19.09.210. The letter demanded production by December 4, 2013. A copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit 15, with a follow-up letter dated December 5, 2013 attached as Exhibit 16. As of this filing, K4K has not produced the requested documentation.

K4K's Deceptive Website Solicits Contributions

- 5.47 At all relevant times, K4K maintained a website, www.kures4kids.org, which included a request for donations, which the public was invited to pay via credit card or PayPal. Attached as Exhibit 17 are copies of printouts of the K4K website. A consumer who clicks on the "Donate" link is taken to a donation page for Knowledge 4 Kids.
- 5.48 Upon information and belief, Amy Gannon designed the website with the help of a third party, and created and/or approved of its content, and Michael Gannon, K4K's president and sole director, also knew and approved of the website's content.
- 5.49 K4K's website, www.kures4kids.org, in the course of soliciting charitable contributions, states that K4K "provides support for low income families with children that have physical and mental developmental disabilities and special needs," and that it does so with the help of "corporate supporters." Upon information and belief K4K has not received any financial or in-kind donations from "corporate supporters" to K4K.
- 5.50 K4K's website solicits charitable contributions, but does not clearly and conspicuously display, in the body of its solicitation including, without limitation, its

"Donate" page, that registration required by the charitable solicitation act is on file with the Secretary of State's office, and that the donor can obtain additional financial and other information at a published number or web site for the office of the Secretary of State.

VI. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (Misrepresenting that Paid Solicitors Are Volunteers)

- 6.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 5.51 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 6.2 At times relevant to this action, Defendants posted internet advertisements seeking to employ "fundraising representatives" (i.e. solicitors) at a rate of $10-15/hour. See Exhibit 8. At times relevant to this action, K4K paid its solicitors at a rate of $10 per hour.
- 6.3 At times relevant to this action, Michael Gannon told consumers that K4K solicitor Dan Barrios was a volunteer when in fact he was paid a rate of $10/hour.
- 6.4 As described above, K4K solicitor Dan repeatedly told consumers that he was a volunteer, when in fact he was an independent contractor paid a rate of $10/hour.
- 6.5 Upon information and belief, other K4K solicitors told consumers that they were volunteers, when in fact they were paid at a rate of $10 per hour.
- 6.6 K4K's paid solicitors were instructed by Defendants to, and regularly did, refer prospective donors to, and give them, certain brochures created by Defendants for use in charitable solicitations. These brochures state that K4K supports its mission through "volunteers." See Exhibit 9. The solicitors' reference to these brochures was misleading and deceptive, because a consumer reading the brochure is invited to believe that the person who gave it to him or her, on behalf of K4K, was a volunteer. Without immediate clarification from the paid solicitor that he or she was compensated, this practice implies that a paid solicitor is a volunteer, in violation of RCW 19.09.100(7)(b).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF WASHINGTON
Consumer Protection Division
800 Fifth Avenue, Suite 2000
Seattle, WA 98104-3188
(206) 464-7745

- 7.3 At times relevant to this action, Defendants represented to the public through their solicitation materials that they were soliciting charitable contributions on behalf of various charitable organizations by stating in their promotional literature that they support those entities. Those entities were and are: Feat Washington, Washington Autism Alliance, The Arc of Island and Skagit, 2014 Special Olympics, Boys and Girls Club of Washington State, Washington Access Fund, Parent to Parent Support Programs, Open Door Autism Center, Easter Seals Washington State, YMCA, Donor Closet, and Q-Lifts. In addition, K4K's solicitors stated to members of the public that K4K supported some or all of these entities, and specifically that K4K raised money for the Boys and Girls Club and Friendship Adventures. Because K4K represented to the public that it was in the business of soliciting contributions for other charitable organizations, it falls within the statutory definition of "commercial fundraiser."
- 7.4 In fact, K4K did (and does) not have any agreement with any of the non-profit or for-profit corporations listed above to raise money on their behalf.
- 7.5 K4K has never registered as a commercial fundraiser with SOS. Failing to register as a commercial fundraiser with SOS is a violation of the Charitable Solicitations Act, RCW 19.09.065. Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 7.6 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affected the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

VIII. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (Misleading and Defective Initial Registration Filing)

8.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 7.6 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.

- 8.2 On October 10, 2012, Michael Gannon submitted a Charitable Organization Registration form for K4K, which stated that K4K's financial accounting year ended on October 31 of each year. Exhibit 5, p. 3. The form stated that K4K's First Accounting Year End Date would be October 31, 2013. Id.
- 8.3 In fact, K4K had been incorporated in March 2012. Exhibit 1. K4K's financial records describe expenses on the company's books dating to March 7, 2013. Using K4K's yearly cut-off of October 31, its first accounting year by K4K's own choice, would be 8 months, and run from March 2012 to October 31, 2012. Thus, any statement by K4K to SOS that K4K's First Accounting Year would end on October 31, 2013 is inaccurate and misleading, as such an accounting "year" would include 20 months, and implicitly represents that there was no expense or revenue generated prior to November 1, 2012 the first day of K4K's purported "Accounting Year."
- 8.4 K4K's Charitable Organization Registration form stated that K4K had not solicited or received contributions in the Accounting Year prior to the one ending on October 31, 2013. See Exhibit 5, p. 4.
- 8.5 In fact, K4K's financial records establish that it began soliciting and collecting contributions on October 25, 2012. Thus, K4K's registration, which represents, at least implicitly, that K4K did not solicit or collect charitable donations prior to October 31, 2012, is inaccurate and misleading.
- 8.6 On May 28, 2013, Michael Gannon, on behalf of K4K, filed a Charitable Organization Amendment form with the SOS. At that time, he knew that K4K's initial Charitable Organization Registration form was inaccurate because he had personally participated in soliciting and collecting donations on behalf of K4K beginning on October 25, 2012. However, K4K's Charitable Organization Amendment form did not correct this problem. See Exhibit 6.

- 8.7 As a result of K4K's misleading and inaccurate filings, the Charitable Solicitations Program Charity Profile Report for K4K, available to the public on the internet, states that for the fiscal year ending on October 31, 2012, there was "no activity." A printout of the Secretary of State's report is attached hereto as Exhibit 18.
- 8.8 The conduct described above violates RCW 19.09.075. Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 8.9 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affects the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

IX. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Failure to Register and File Contracts with Commercial Fundraisers)

- 9.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 8.8 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 9.2 At all relevant times, Defendants represented, and continue to represent, to consumers and the SOS that K4K is a charitable organization as that term is defined in RCW 19.09.020(2).
- 9.3 At all relevant times, K4K retained and engaged independent contractors to solicit charitable donations on behalf of K4K. K4K represented in its application for a business license that these solicitors would not be employees, but independent contractors. A copy of K4K's Business License Application Record of Filing, dated January 21, 2013, is attached hereto as Exhibit 19. K4K paid these solicitors at a rate of $10 per hour.
- 9.4 These independent contractors fall within the definition of "commercial fundraiser" under RCW 19.09.020(5), and the definition of "entity" under RCW 19.09.020(9).

- 9.5 K4K failed to enter into written contracts with its independent contractors that include the terms required by RCW 19.09.097(1).
- 9.6 K4K and its independent contractors failed to file with the SOS the registration form required by RCW 19.09.097(2). K4K also failed to file with the SOS its contracts with commercial fundraisers, as required by 19.09.097(4).
- 9.7 Failing to include the contractual terms required by RCW 19.09.097(1) and to file the registration required by RCW 19.09.097(2) and a copy of the contracts required by RCW 19.09.097(4) are violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act. Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 9.8 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affects the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

X. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Failing to Make Adequate Disclosures in Written Solicitations)

- 10.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 9.8 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 10.2 At times relevant to this action, K4K failed to adequately disclose the following information in K4K solicitation materials, which was required because K4K was and is a commercial fundraiser:

1	a. The fact that the solicitation was being conducted by a commercial
2	fundraiser. See RCW 19.09.100(4)(a).
3	b. The fact that the registration as a commercial fundraiser required under
4	the Charitable Solicitations Act, was on file with SOS. RCW 19.09.100(4)(b). In fact, no such
5	registration was on file.
6	10.3 Even if K4K is not a commercial fundraiser, RCW 19.09.100(4)(c) requires that
7	its brochures disclose conspicuously in the body of the solicitation material that the "potential
8	donor can obtain additional financial and other information at a published number or web site for
9	the office of the secretary [of state]." K4K's brochures do not contain this disclosure,
10	conspicuously or otherwise. Instead, K4K's brochure directs potential donors to K4K's own
11	website for information, rather than that of the SOS. See Exhibit 9.
12,	10.4 The conduct described above constitutes violations of the Charitable Solicitations
13	Act, RCW 19.09, and RCW 19.09.100(4) specifically. Violations of these statutes are per se
14	violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
15	10.5 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affected the public
16	interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or
17	deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of
18	the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.
19	XI. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
20	(Failure to Make Required Disclosures in On-Line Solicitations)
21	11.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 10.5 and incorporates them herein as if
22	set forth in full.
23	11.2 At all relevant times, K4K maintained a website, www.kures4kids.org, which
24	included a request for donations, which the public was invited to pay via credit card or PayPal.
25	See Exhibit 17.

and/or	approve	ed of its content.	Michael	Gannon,	K4K's	presi	ident	and	sole o	director	, also	knew and app	proved o	of the website's co	ontent.

- 11.4 K4K's website, www.kures4kids.org, in the course of soliciting charitable contributions, states that K4K "provides support for low income families with children that have physical and mental developmental disabilities and special needs," and that it does so with the help of "corporate supporters." Upon information and belief K4K has not received any financial or in-kind donations from "corporate supporters" to K4K.
 - 11.5 RCW 19.09.100(4) provides in relevant part:

In the case of a solicitation by advertisement or mass distribution, including postal, electronic, posters, leaflets, automatic dialing machines, publications, and audio or video broadcasts, it must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the body of the solicitation material that:

- (b) The registration required by the charitable solicitation act is on file with the secretary's office; and
- (c) The potential donor can obtain additional financial and other information at a published number or web site for the office of the secretary.
- 11.6 The solicitation on K4K's website does not include the clear and conspicuous disclosure required by RCW 19.09.100(4)(b) and (c).
- 11.7 The conduct described above violates RCW 19.09.100(4) and (15). Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 11.8 RCW 19.09.020(19)(b) provides that a solicitation is complete when it is made, regardless whether the prospective donor makes a contribution. Because the K4K website solicits a contribution from each visitor, each visitor to the website represents a separate failure to comply with RCW 19.09.100(15), and a separate violation of the CSA and CPA.

11.9 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affects the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

XII. SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION (False, Misleading, and Deceptive Statements During In-Person Solicitations)

- 12.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 11.9 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 12.2 RCW 19.09.100(15) provides that "[a]ny entity soliciting contributions for a charitable purpose must not include in any solicitation, or in any advertising material for a solicitation, or in any promotional plan for a solicitation, any statement that is false, misleading, or deceptive."
- 12.3 At times relevant to this action, K4K claimed to be collecting donations on behalf of or otherwise supported other charitable organizations, when in fact it was not authorized to solicit on behalf of those organizations, and had no agreement to provide such charitable organizations with fundraising or other support. In some cases K4K even continued to claim that they were soliciting on behalf of organizations after those organizations had requested that Defendants remove their names from all K4K literature.
- 12.4 At times relevant to this action, Defendants claimed to be fundraising to provide mobility equipment to children with disabilities and to support other charitable organizations, when in fact the amount that K4K expended for such purposes is a small fraction of its donation revenue. As of June 30, 2013, K4K's financial records provided to the AGO indicate that K4K had received $35,437.76 in total donations, and had spent less than $3,500, or 10% of donation revenue, to provide mobility equipment or to support other charitable institutions. In contrast, K4K paid $18,600 – approximately 52% of its donation revenue – in salary to its sole director and president, Michael Gannon through June 30, 2013.

- 12.5 At all times relevant to this action, K4K's solicitation materials represented to the public that it provided assistance to low-income families of children with disabilities and the net impression of K4K's solicitation is that K4K apply most of the donations directly for a charitable purpose. In fact, K4K's financial records indicate that it paid its Director, Michael Gannon, thousands of dollars per month through May 2013 even though it had not at that time distributed any funds to disabled children or their families, or to the charitable organizations listed on K4K's solicitation materials. Since May 2013, K4K has continued to compensate Michael Gannon at a rate in excess of $3,000.00 per month, while distributing far less than that amount to disabled children or their families, or to the charitable organizations listed on K4K's solicitation materials.
- 12.6 The conduct described above violates RCW 19.09.100(15). Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 12.7 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affects the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

XIII. EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Failure to Maintain Books, Records, and Contracts)

- 13.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 12.7 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 13.2 Defendants have not kept accurate, current, and readily available records of the total value of funds expended by K4K for charitable purposes.

- 13.3 Defendants have failed to maintain accurate, current, and readily available records of K4K's expenses, including fundraising costs and administrative expenses.
- 13.4 Defendants have failed to produce, upon the request of the Attorney General's Office, a financial statement and supporting documentation. See Exhibits 15 and 16.
- 13.5 Failing to maintain accurate, current, and readily available books and records is a violation of RCW 19.09.200(1). Failing to produce requested financial statements and documents is a violation of RCW 19.09.210. Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 13.6 Notwithstanding RCW 19.09.340, the conduct described above affected the public interest, had the capacity to deceive a substantial number of consumers, and constituted unfair or deceptive acts or practices in trade or commerce and unfair methods of competition in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86, and RCW 19.86.020 specifically.

XIV. NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Injunctive Relief)

- 14.1 Plaintiff realleges Paragraphs 1.1 through 13.6 and incorporates them herein as if set forth in full.
- 14.2 RCW 19.09.100(12) provides that "[a]ny entity required to register under this chapter must not engage in any solicitation for contributions unless it complies with all provisions of this chapter."
- 14.3 As demonstrated above, K4K has not complied with all provisions of the Charitable Solicitations Act, RCW 19.09. As such, K4K is not permitted to engage in any solicitation activities, and should be permanently enjoined from doing so.
- 14.4 RCW 19.86.080(1) provides that "[t]he attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state, or as parens patriae on behalf of persons residing in the state, against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful"

Pursuant to RCW 19.09.340, Defendants' violations of the Charitable Solicitations Act are per se violations of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86. Moreover, the conduct described above is deceptive and unfair, in violation of RCW 19.86.020, and should be permanently enjoined.

XV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, State of Washington, prays for relief as follows:

- 15.1 That the Court adjudge and decree that Defendant has engaged in the conduct complained of herein.
- 15.2 That the Court adjudge and decree that the conduct complained of violates the Charitable Solicitations Act, RCW 19.09, and therefore violates the Consumer Protection Act, per se.
- 15.3 That the Court adjudge and decree that the conduct complained of constitutes unfair or deceptive acts and practices and unfair methods of competition contrary to the public interest and is unlawful in violation of the Consumer Protection Act, RCW 19.86.
- 15.4 That the Court issue preliminary and permanent injunctions enjoining and restraining Defendants and their representatives, successors, assigns, officers, agents, servants, employees, and all other persons acting or claiming to act for, on behalf of, or in active concert or participation with K4K from continuing or engaging in the unlawful conduct complained of herein.
- 15.5 That the Court assess civil penalties pursuant to RCW 19.86.140 of up to two thousand dollars ($2,000) per violation against the Defendants for each and every violation of RCW 19.86.020 caused by the conduct complained of herein.
- 15.6 That the Court make such orders pursuant to RCW 19.86.080 as it deems appropriate to provide for restitution to consumers of money or property acquired by the Defendant as a result of the conduct complained of herein.

1	15.7 That the Court make such orders pursuant to RCW 19.86.080 to provide that the
2	plaintiff, State of Washington, have and recover from the Defendant the costs of this action,
3	including reasonable attorney's fees.
4	15.8 For such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

RCW 19.146 (2006)

STATEMENT OF CHARGES C-07-484-09-SC02 1st Columbia Mortgage Corporation, Joseph William Searles, Michael William Gannon, Norman Vincent Keele, and Michael Alan Honorof NO. C-07-484-09-SC02

After having conducted an investigation pursuant to RCW 19.146.235, and based upon the facts available as of the date of this Statement of Charges and Notice of Intention to Enter an Order to Revoke or Suspend License, Prohibit from Industry, Impose Fine, Order Restitution, and Collect Investigation Fee (hereinafter Statement of Charges), the Director, through his designee, Division of Consumer Services Director Deborah Bortner, institutes this proceeding and finds as follows:

1.6 Use of Lis Pendens to Collect a Debt. In each of the 36 loan files reviewed, Respondents provided Loan Servicing Agreements to borrowers granting Respondents the right to file a Lis Pendens on any real property interest owned by the borrower for collection of third-party fees or a processing fee owed to Respondent 1st Columbia in the event the loan was cancelled and the borrower did not pay the third-party fees or the processing fee owed to Respondent 1st Columbia.

- 1.7 Failure to Correctly Disclose Yield Spread Premium. In 27 of 36 loan files reviewed, Respondents³ did not maintain evidence sufficient to establish that the Yield Spread Premium (YSP) was correctly disclosed on Good Faith Estimates (GFE) given to borrowers or Respondents did not correctly disclose the YSP to the borrowers in that Respondents did not disclose the YSP on the GFE, or did not disclose the YSP in the 800 section of the GFE, or did not disclose the YSP as a dollar amount or dollar range, or did not use the words "yield spread premium", or did not provide a new GFE at least three days prior to closing when the YSP increased from that previously disclosed.
- 1.8 Failure to Correctly Disclose Fees in the GFE that Inure to Respondents' Benefit. In 23 of the 36 loan files reviewed, Respondents⁴ did not maintain evidence sufficient to establish that Respondents correctly disclosed fees that inured to the mortgage broker's benefit on the GFE in that Respondents did not specifically identify in the GFE each fee that inured to Respondents' benefit, or did not disclose all fees that inured to Respondents' benefit on the GFE or provide a new GFE at least three days prior to closing, or Respondents used line 801 of the GFE to disclose mortgage broker fees.

In the alternative, on 22 of the 36 loan files reviewed, Respondents did not maintain evidence sufficient to establish that Respondents deposited escrow checks that included the borrowers' third-party credit report fees or appraisal fees into a trust account. Instead,

For purposes of paragraph 1.7, "Respondents" does not include Respondent Keele.
 For purposes of paragraph 1.8, "Respondents" does not include Respondent Honorof.

it appears Respondents deposited these funds into a general	al account held 1	by Respondent	1 st Columbia, thereby
commingling trust funds with operating funds.		•

- 1.10 Failure to Disclose Loan Originator License Number on Loan Applications. In 6 of 36 loan files reviewed, Respondents did not disclose the loan originator's license number on the borrowers' residential mortgage loan applications.
- 1.11 Unlawful Advertising and Fees. Between at least May 1, 2008 and July 2, 2008, Respondent 1st

 Columbia advertised to other mortgage brokers and loan originators a thing of value whereby mortgage brokers or loan originators were to refer applications or mini applications to Respondent 1st Columbia, which would pay fees to the referring mortgage broker or loan originator based on the value of the loan obtained by the consumer.

1.12 Complaint No. 24783.

- A On or about December 16, 2006, the borrower in complaint number 24783 (hereinafter Borrower 24783) met Respondent 1st Columbia's representative and requested assistance in obtaining a loan. On or about December 21, 2006, Respondents⁵ obtained a credit report related to Borrower 24783. However, Respondents did not maintain records sufficient to establish that Respondents provided a GFE, Truth-In-Lending (TIL), or Servicing disclosure to Borrower 24783 within three days of pulling the credit report, or Respondents did not provide the GFE or TIL or Servicing disclosure within three days of pulling Borrower 24783's credit report.

obtained a mortgage fee of $7,000 related to the transaction with Company A. This fee is excessive for the amount of services performed by Respondents. In the alternative, Respondents did not provide an Affiliated Business Disclosure to the borrower.

D Respondent Searles provided Borrower 24783 with a Borrower's Certificate and Authorization stating that Borrower 24783 applied for a loan with Company A. However, Respondent Searles knew that Company A does not make or assist anyone in applying for a residential mortgage loan. Company A was in the business of purchasing homes for investment purposes.

1.13 Complaint No. 23470.

A On or about December 18, 2006, Respondent Gannon, acting on behalf of Company A, referred, received, or accepted a referral for Company A of the borrower in Complaint No. 23470 (hereinafter Borrower 23470). On or about December 17, 2006, Borrower 23470 contacted Maag Inc d/b/a Millcreek Mortgage (Maag Inc), a company owned by Respondent Gannon's spouse, for a residential mortgage loan. On or about December 18, 2006, Maag Inc issued a Denial of Credit and as noted above, the matter was referred to Company A. Maag Inc provided no additional services related to this borrower's transaction with Company A. However, Respondent Gannon provided a referral fee of $15,000 in three separate checks of $5,000 each from Company A to Maag Inc. This fee is excessive for the amount of services performed by Maag Inc. In the alternative, Respondent Gannon did not provide an Affiliated Business Disclosure to the borrower.

B Respondent Gannon provided Borrower 23470 with a Borrower's Certificate and Authorization stating that Borrower 23470 applied for a loan with Company A. However, Respondent Gannon knew that Company A does not make or assist anyone in applying for a residential mortgage loan. Company A was in the business of purchasing homes for investment purposes.

1.14 Failure to Timely or Completely Comply with a Directive.

A On December 12, 2008, the Department served an entry letter and Designated Broker's Questionnaire on Respondents 1st Columbia and Respondent 1st Columbia's legal representative by First-Class mail and email. The entry letter required Respondent 1st Columbia and Respondent Searles to complete the Designated Broker's Questionnaire and submit a list of all Washington loans originated, brokered, funded, purchased, serviced, or sold between August 31, 2006, and September 30, 2008, by January 7, 2009. Neither Respondent 1st Columbia nor Respondent Searles provided the materials as directed.

- B On or about January 8, 2009, Respondent Searles was notified via a telephone conversation with a Department representative that the list of loans and Designated Broker's Questionnaire needed to be provided. Respondent Searles was directed to comply by January 12, 2009.
- C On January 12, 2009, while at Respondent 1st Columbia's records location, a Department representative notified Respondent 1st Columbia's legal representative that the loan list and questionnaire still needed to be provided. Finally, via an email sent on January 20, 2009, at 9:06 a.m., a Department representative notified Respondent 1st Columbia's legal representative that the list of loans and questionnaire had not been received, and said information was required before 1:00 p.m. that day.
- D On or about January 20, 2009, the Department received an incomplete response to the entry letter and Designated Broker's Questionnaire, in that the response received did not contain a list of loans closed during the exam period, an accurate accounting of the total Washington loans handled (question 9 of the Designated Broker's Questionnaire), or any of the schedules or supporting documentation in the "additional information" section beginning on page 10 of the Designated Broker's Questionnaire.
- 1.15 Failure to Submit a Mortgage Broker Closure Form or Annual Report. Respondent 1st Columbia and Respondent Searles did not renew their license by December 31, 2008. On or about February 2009, the Department received a Notice of Bond Cancellation from Respondent 1st Columbia's surety bond company. Respondents 1st Columbia and Searles did not provide to the Department, within 20 days of ceasing operations in Washington, a mortgage broker closure form or annual report.
- 1.13 On-Going Investigation. The Department's investigation into the alleged violations of the Act by Respondents continues to date.

Standards for Charity Accountability

Tools Print Bookmark & Share A A A

PREFACE

The BBB Wise Giving Alliance Standards for Charity Accountability were developed to assist donors in making sound giving decisions and to foster public confidence in charitable organizations. The standards seek to encourage fair and honest solicitation practices, to promote ethical conduct by charitable organizations and to advance support of philanthropy.

These standards replace the separate standards of the National Charities Information Bureau and the CBBBs' Foundation and its Philanthropic Advisory Service that were in place at the time the organizations merged.

The Standards for Charity Accountability were developed with professional and technical assistance from representatives of small and large charitable organizations, the accounting profession, grant making foundations, corporate contributions officers, regulatory agencies, research organizations and the BBBs. The BBB Wise Giving Alliance also commissioned significant independent research on donor expectations to ensure that the views of the general public were reflected in the standards.

The generous support of the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, the Surdna Foundation, and Sony Corporation of America helped underwrite the development of these standards and related research.

Organizations that comply with these accountability standards have provided documentation that they meet basic standards:

In how they govern their organization,

In the ways they spend their money,

In the truthfulness of their representations, and

In their willingness to disclose basic information to the public.

These standards apply to publicly soliciting organizations that are tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and to other organizations conducting charitable solicitations. The standards are not intended to apply to private foundations, as they do not solicit contributions from the public.

The overarching principle of the BBB Wise Giving Alliance Standards for Charity Accountability is full disclosure to donors and potential donors at the time of solicitation and thereafter. However, where indicated, the standards recommend ethical practices beyond the act of disclosure in order to ensure public confidence and encourage giving. As voluntary standards, they also go beyond the requirements of local, state and federal laws and regulations.

In addition to the specific areas addressed in the standards, the BBB Wise Giving Alliance encourages charitable organizations to adopt the following management practices to further the cause of charitable accountability.

Initiate a policy promoting pluralism and diversity within the organization's board, staff, and constituencies. While organizations vary widely in their ability to demonstrate pluralism and diversity, every organization should establish a policy, consistent with its mission statement, that fosters such inclusiveness.

Ensure adherence to all applicable local, state and federal laws and regulations including submission of financial information.

Maintain an organizational adherence to the specific standards cited below. The BBB Wise Giving Alliance also encourages charities to maintain an organizational commitment to accountability that transcends specific standards and places a priority on openness and ethical behavior in the charity's programs and activities.

STANDARDS FOR CHARITABLE ACCOUNTABILITY

GOVERNANCE AND OVERSIGHT

The governing board has the ultimate oversight authority for any charitable organization. This section of the standards seeks to ensure that the volunteer board is active, independent and free of self-dealing. To meet these standards, the organization shall have:

- 1. A board of directors that provides adequate oversight of the charity's operations and its staff. Indication of adequate oversight includes, but is not limited to, regularly scheduled appraisals of the CEO's performance, evidence of disbursement controls such as board approval of the budget, fund raising practices, establishment of a conflict of interest policy, and establishment of accounting procedures sufficient to safeguard charity finances.
- 2. A board of directors with a minimum of five voting members.
- 3. A minimum of three evenly spaced meetings per year of the full governing body with a majority in attendance, with face-to-face participation. A conference call of the full board can substitute for one of the three meetings of the governing body. For all meetings, alternative modes of participation are acceptable for those with physical disabilities.
- 4. Not more than one or 10% (whichever is greater) directly or indirectly compensated person(s) serving as voting member(s) of the board. Compensated members shall not serve as the board's chair or treasurer.

[Publicly soliciting churches and other houses of worship: see the Implementation Guide for further information about the application of this standard.]

5. No transaction(s) in which any board or staff members have material conflicting interests with the charity resulting from any relationship or business affiliation. Factors that will be considered when concluding whether or not a related party transaction constitutes a conflict of interest and if such a conflict is material, include, but are not limited to: any arm's length procedures established by the charity; the size of the transaction relative to like expenses of the charity; whether the interested party participated in the board vote on the transaction; if competitive bids were sought and whether the transaction is one-time, recurring or ongoing.

MEASURING EFFECTIVENESS

An organization should regularly assess its effectiveness in achieving its mission. This section seeks to ensure that an organization has defined, measurable goals and objectives in place and a defined process in place to evaluate the success and impact of its program(s) in fulfilling the goals and objectives of the organization and that also identifies ways to address any deficiencies. To meet these standards, a charitable organization shall:

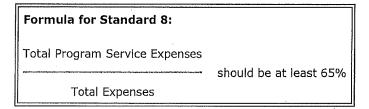

- 6. Have a board policy of assessing, no less than every two years, the organization's performance and effectiveness and of determining future actions required to achieve its mission.
- 7. Submit to the organization's governing body, for its approval, a written report that outlines the results of the aforementioned performance and effectiveness assessment and recommendations for future actions.

FINANCES

This section of the standards seeks to ensure that the charity spends its funds honestly, prudently and in accordance with statements made in fund raising appeals. To meet these standards, the charitable organization shall:

Please note that standards 8 and 9 have different denominators.

8. Spend at least 65% of its total expenses on program activities.

9. Spend no more than 35% of related contributions on fund raising. Related contributions include donations, legacies, and other gifts received as a result of fund raising efforts.

Formula for Standard 9:
Total Fund Raising Expenses	should be no more than 35%
Total Related Contributions	should be no more than 55%

10. Avoid accumulating funds that could be used for current program activities. To meet this standard, the charity's unrestricted net assets available for use should not be more than three times the size of the past year's expenses or three times the size of the current year's budget, whichever is higher.

[Meeting certain public disclosure requirements described in the Implementation Guide may enable a charity to satisfy this standard.]

An organization that does not meet Standards 8, 9 and/or 10 may provide evidence to demonstrate that its use of funds is reasonable. The higher fund raising and administrative costs of a newly created organization, donor restrictions on the use of funds, exceptional bequests, a stigma associated with a cause and environmental or political events beyond an organization's control are among factors which may result in expenditures that are reasonable although they do not meet the financial measures cited in these standards.

- 11. Make available to all, on request, complete annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. When total annual gross income exceeds $500,000*, these statements should be audited in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. For charities whose annual gross income is less than $500,000*, a review by a certified public accountant is sufficient to meet this standard. For charities whose annual gross income is less than $250,000*, an internally produced, complete financial statement is sufficient to meet this standard.
- *Note that new financial statement thresholds for Standard 11 are effective for fiscal years ending 12/31/2011 and thereafter.
- 12. Include in the financial statements a breakdown of expenses (e.g., salaries, travel, postage, etc.) that shows what portion of these expenses was allocated to program, fund raising, and administrative activities. If the charity has more than one major program category, the schedule should provide a breakdown for each category.
- 13. Accurately report the charity's expenses, including any joint cost allocations, in its financial statements. For example, audited or unaudited statements which inaccurately claim zero fund raising expenses or otherwise understate the amount a charity spends on fund raising, and/or overstate the amount it spends on programs will not meet this standard.
- 14. Have a board-approved annual budget for its current fiscal year, outlining projected expenses for major program activities, fund raising, and administration.

FUND RAISING AND INFORMATIONAL MATERIALS

A-fund raising appeal is often the only contact a donor has with a charity and may be the sole impetus for giving. This section of the standards seeks to ensure that a charity's representations to the public are accurate, complete and respectful. To meet these standards, the charitable organization shall:

15. Have solicitations and informational materials, distributed by any means, that are accurate, truthful and not misleading, both in whole and in part. Appeals that omit a clear description of program (s) for which contributions are sought will not meet this standard.

A charity should also be able to substantiate that the timing and nature of its expenditures are in accordance with what is stated, expressed, or implied in the charity's solicitations.

- 16. Have an annual report available to all, on request, that includes:
 - a. the organization's mission statement,
 - b. a summary of the past year's program service accomplishments,
 - c. a roster of the officers and members of the board of directors,
 - d. financial information that includes (i) total income in the past fiscal year, (ii) expenses in the same program, fund raising and administrative categories as in the financial statements, and (iii) ending net assets.
- 17. Include on any charity websites that solicit contributions, the same information that is recommended for annual reports, as well as the mailing address of the charity and electronic access to its most recent IRS Form 990.
- 18. Address privacy concerns of donors by
 - a. providing in written appeals, at least annually, a means (e.g., such as a check off box) for both new and continuing donors to inform the charity if they do not want their name and address shared outside the organization, and
 - b. providing a clear, prominent and easily accessible privacy policy on any of its websites that tells visitors (i) what information, if any, is being collected about them by the charity and how this information will be used, (ii) how to contact the charity to review personal information collected and request corrections, (iii) how to inform the charity (e.g., a check off box) that the visitor does not wish his/her personal information to be shared outside the organization, and (iv) what security measures the charity has in place to protect personal information.
- 19. Clearly disclose how the charity benefits from the sale of products or services (i.e., causerelated marketing) that state or imply that a charity will benefit from a consumer sale or transaction. Such promotions should disclose, at the point of solicitation:
 - a. the actual or anticipated portion of the purchase price that will benefit the charity (e.g., 5 cents will be contributed to abc charity for every xyz company product sold),
 - b. the duration of the campaign (e.g., the month of October),
 - c. any maximum or guaranteed minimum contribution amount (e.g., up to a maximum of $200,000).
- 20. Respond promptly to and act on complaints brought to its attention by the BBB Wise Giving Alliance and/or local BBBs about fund raising practices, privacy policy violations and/or other issues.

ABOUT AIP RATING GUIDE LINKS PRAISE MEMBERSHIP CONTACT HOME

Selecting a charity to support is a bit like playing God. Ideally, it should take into account your most deeply held concerns and convictions.

Before sending in a donation to a group, you can now consider how well it will spend your money by referring to the CharityWatch Charity Rating Guide. Each organization is listed by category with its phone number, financial performance measurements and an overall grade (where enough information is available). You can also review the ratings of other charities in the same category to compare a particular group with those which do similar work.

The Guide indicates whether or not an organization is eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions, noting those charities which may have separately incorporated entities with a different tax-deductibility status.

The Guide shows which groups are new or have received an updated evaluation.

The Guide shows which groups have provided CharityWatch the following documents (which we have requested): annual report, complete audited financial statements, and Internal Revenue Service Form 990 including applicable schedules. Donors may want to consider an organization's accountability to CharityWatch when making giving decisions.

Omission of charities from the Charity Rating Guide or this web site does not imply a negative evaluation or rating.

Some groups receive large amounts of donated goods and services. These items can be difficult to value and distort the calculation of how efficiently a charity is spending your dollars. Donated items are generally excluded from CharityWatch's calculation of the following ratios:

PERCENT SPENT ON CHARITABLE PURPOSE

This is the portion of total expenses that is spent on charitable programs. In CharityWatch's view, 60% or greater is reasonable for most charities. The remaining percentage is spent on fundraising and general administration. Note: A 60% program percentage typically indicates a "satisfactory" or "C range" rating. Most highly efficient charities are able to spend 75% or more on programs.

When a range of numbers is given, the higher number, in most cases, reflects the charity's own decision on how much is spent on charitable program expenses. The mailings and phone calls of these groups may serve a dual purpose: raising funds and educating donors. However many of these groups consider such mailings and phone calls to be largely educational and their costs to be primarily program expenses. In some cases CharityWatch adjusts the higher number. For example, CharityWatch may differ with a group's decision that the cost of acquiring new donors or members is a program service. Fundraising costs, i.e., direct mail and telemarketing, are often factored in as program expenses. If you agree that fundraising activities serve as a bona-fide educational or program purpose, you may decide that this higher number reflects your goals.

The lower CharityWatch number assumes that all direct mail telemarketing and solicitation costs are separate fund-raising expenses and should not be included with direct program service costs. If you do not consider any portion of a charity's direct mail and telemarketing solicitations to be a bona-fide program or if you are a new contributor and do not want to fund solicitation campaigns, the lower number reflects your goals. (The CharityWatch letter grade ratings are based on this assumption.) Please note, however, that the work done by certain types of nonprofit organizations may warrant a greater allocation of direct mail and telemarketing costs to program expenses. Please see "Exception for Social Welfare Groups" below for more details.

COST TO RAISE $100

This dollar amount reflects how much is spent to raise each $100 of funds collected. In CharityWatch's view, $35 or less to raise $100 is reasonable for most charities. When a range is given, the lower amount usually reflects the charity's own decision on how much direct mail and telemarketing costs are bona-fide fundraising expenses. In some cases, CharityWatch adjusts the lower number to reflect its different view on whether an item is a fundraising expense. The higher CharityWatch number assumes that all (please see "Exceptions for Social Welfare Groups" below) direct mail and telemarketing solicitation costs are fundraising expenses.

CharityWatch helps you to judge the fundraising efficiency of a charity by comparing fund-raising expense with related contributions, i.e., money that was brought in as a result of fundraising activities; whereas many charities compare (by pie charts or ratios) their cost to raise money with total income, which can include patient revenue, investment income, sales proceeds and other items that are not affected by fundraising outlays. This erroneous comparison often makes a charity's fundraising efficiency appear better than it actually is. The following comparison illustrates this point:

Erroneous Comparison:

$$\frac{$100,000 \text{ fundraising expense}}{$1,000,000 \text{ total income}} = \frac{10}{100} = 10\%$$

Using this formula, a charity can claim that only 10% of its total income was spent on fundraising. This percentage may look great in a charity's promotional material but it is not a meaningful measurement of fundraising efficiency.

CharityWatch Comparison:

$$\frac{$100,000 \text{ fundraising expense}}{$200,000 \text{ related contributions}} = \frac{50}{100} = 50\%$$

Using this formula, one can see that Charity X has a fund-raising efficiency of 50% or that it costs the charity $50 to raise $100. This ratio is useful because it tells donors how much a charity is spending to obtain your contribution and how much is left to spend on charitable programs and general administration.

EXCEPTION FOR SOCIAL WELFARE GROUPS

The mailings and phone calls of social welfare groups that are not eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions, identified by the "nt" designation in the Charity Rating Guide, may serve a dual purpose: raising funds and recruiting/educating members to write their congressman or make other attempts to influence legislation. CharityWatch counts up to 30% of the cost of such mailings and phone calls as program expenses in its lower number for "% Spent on Charitable Purpose," its higher number for "cost to raise $100" and its overall grade. Please note however, that many of these groups consider such mailings and phone calls to be largely educational and allocate over 30% of these costs to program expenses. These accounting differences may cause lower overall grades for some social welfare organizations.

YEARS OF AVAILABLE ASSETS

This column shows how long a charity with large reserves of available assets could continue to operate at current levels without any additional fundraising. In CharityWatch's view, a reserve of less than three years is reasonable and does not affect a group's grade. When years of available assets are 3 years or more, they are shown in a separate chart.

GRADE

The letter grades for most charities are based on "% Spent On Charitable Purpose" and "Cost to Raise $100," and assumes that direct mail and telemarketing solicitations are fund-raising costs. (Please see "Exception for Social Welfare Groups" above.) When a charity's years of available assets are three years or more, their grade is reduced and reported in a separate chart.

Groups with "years of available assets" of more than five years are the "least needy" in CharityWatch's view, and receive an "F" grade regardless of other measurements. (Please see "Charities with Large Asset

CharityWatch encourages each donor to consider these factors and others, which you may feel are more significant, when making charitable giving decisions. CharityWatch provides this information to help you make your own decision concerning which charity to support. The letter grades represent the opinion of CharityWatch.

A charity's rating is based solely on the above criteria. The grades are:

A = Excellent	B = Good
C = Satisfactory	D = Unsatisfactory
F = Poor	? = Insufficient Information

When information is given only on the national headquarters and the charity does not include its affiliates in its financial statements, "National Office" or "N.O." appears after the group's name.

GRADE CHANGES

Does a charity's grade fluctuate much? Usually new evaluations of charities do not result in more than a letter grade change, though it is important to regularly check the grades of your favorite charities because there are exceptions. For example, the grade of United States Association for UNHCR (United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees) went from A- to D to C to B to C over a several year period.

CHARITIES WITH LARGE ASSET RESERVES

CharityWatch strongly believes that your dollars are most urgently needed by charities that do not have large reserves of available assets. CharityWatch therefore reduces the grade of any group that has available assets equal to three to five years of operating expenses. In CharityWatch's view, a reserve of less than three years is reasonable and does not affect a group's grade.

These reductions in grades are based solely on the charities' asset reserves as compared to budget. If you agree with these charities that reserves greater than three years' budget are necessary to enhance their long-term stability, you may wish to disregard the lower grades that CharityWatch assigns on the basis of high assets.

The CharityWatch definition of "years of available assets" includes funds currently available for the charity's use, including investments that the charity has set aside as a reserve but could choose to spend if it wanted to do so.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES, UNITED WAY WORLDWIDE, VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA AND UNITED JEWISH COMMUNITIES

These groups are composed of hundreds of local organizations. Each of these is governed by local volunteers and primarily raises and spends money in their own community. CharityWatch's Charity Rating Guide currently focuses on national organizations.

HOW TO LEARN MORE

After selecting your favorite charities, you can call or write to them for a description of their mission, program activities and recent accomplishments. (Phone numbers are provided in the Charity Rating Guide and addresses can be found on the Internet or in the reference sections of most public libraries.) Insist that the descriptions of program activities be clear and quantifiable (for example, How many hungry were fed? or How much land was protected?) and coincide with the time period and categories of the financial statements.

WORDS OF CAUTION

Charity financial reporting is inconsistent, unclear and often incorrect. To form a basis of comparison, adjustments have been made to the financial reports of some of the organizations in this guide. For example, if a charity does a lot of direct mail soliciting but includes only a small portion of its total postage and printing in fund-raising expenses, then the CharityWatch rating will reflect a larger share of these items in fundraising.
